(6) Other Accounts	A Gazetted Government Officer or an officer of a Government company or a local authority in his official capacity or the Reserve Bank of India on behalf of persons or bodies whose moneys are held as deposit or otherwise with such officer or Bank or a Receiver appointed by a Court of Law in respect of moneys received by him as such receiver.	One on behalf of each person or body.	The officer who opened the account or his successor in office.

NOTE.—There is no maximum limit for deposits or balance in the case of any type of account but in case of single and joint accounts, interest will not accrue on a balance exceeding Rs. 15,000 and Rs. 30,000 respectively.

4. Deposits.—(1) Deposits may be made in any of the following modes, namely:—

- (a) Cash;
- (b) surrender of Savings Stamps; and
- (c) in the case of deposits at any Savings Bank other than an Extra Departmental Sub Savings Bank or a Branch Savings Bank, by surrender of a matured Government of India 5-Year Interest-free Prize Bond, 1965 or by a cheque or other approved instrument.

(2) No account shall be opened with a deposit of less than Rs. 2.

(3) No subsequent deposit shall be less than Re. 1 in the case of cash and savings stamps and Rs. 5 in the case of a cheque or other instrument accepted for deposit.

(4) The date of credit in the account of money deposited by cheque or other instrument shall be the date of encashment and not the date of presentation.

(5) Only a cheque drawn in favour of the depositor or the Postmaster and crossed generally or specially in favour of the Savings Bank concerned shall be accepted for deposit.

(6) Collection charges at a rate to be fixed from time to time by the Director General may be debited to the account for the collection of an outstation cheque, or instrument.

5. Acknowledgment of a deposit.—For each deposit the depositor shall be granted a receipt in the pass book or in the prescribed form of receipt. Whenever a receipt is granted in the pass book at a Sub or Branch Savings Bank the depositor shall also receive an acknowledgment from the Head Savings Bank. Non-receipt of acknowledgment in proper time or receipt of acknowledgment containing erasures or entries which do not agree with the entry in the pass book should immediately be reported by the depositor to the Postmaster of the Head Post Office, specified in the pass book.

6. Withdrawal.—(1) No withdrawal shall be for a sum less than rupee one.

(2) No withdrawal shall be permitted which has the effect of reducing the balance to less than five rupees.

(3) Withdrawal from an account at a Sub Savings Bank is subject to the condition of availability of funds.

(4) No withdrawal except to the extent of the amount prescribed by the Director General from time to time shall be allowed from an Extra Departmental Sub Savings Bank or a Branch Savings Bank without prior sanction of the Bank to which it is subordinate.

7. Withdrawal from an account opened on behalf of a minor or a person of unsound mind.—A withdrawal shall be permitted, during the minority or lunacy of the depositor on the guardian or Superintendent of the mental hospital, as the case may be, furnishing a certificate in the following form:—

“Certified that the amount sought to be withdrawn is required for the use of _____ who is a minor/a person of unsound mind/and who is alive this day.”

8. Withdrawal by cheque.—Withdrawal by cheque may be made at any Head or departmental Sub Savings Bank authorised by the Director General in this behalf and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by him from time to time.

9. Interest.—Interest at the rate, notified by the Government in the official gazette from time to time, shall be allowed for each calendar month on the lowest balance at credit of an account between the close of the sixth day and the end of the month:

Provided that—

- (i) interest shall be allowed only on sums of complete rupees and shall be rounded off to the nearest multiple of five paise and for this purpose any amount of 2·5 paise or more shall be treated as five paise and any amount less than 2·5 paise shall be ignored;
- (ii) no interest shall be allowed on an account for any month in which the balance at credit was below Rs. 25 at any time between the sixth and last date of the month;
- (iii) no interest shall be allowed on an account for any year in which the amount of interest for the year is less than 50 paise;
- (iv) no interest shall be allowed on any single or joint account on any sum in excess of Rs. 15,000 and Rs. 30,000 respectively;
- (v) no interest shall be allowed on a security deposit account after the expiry of three months from the first day of the month in which the amount secured has been withdrawn by the pledgee or the pledgee has authorised repayment of such amount to the pledger, whichever is earlier;
- (vi) no interest shall be allowed on any provident fund account opened in the name of a member after the expiry of six months from the first day of the month in which the order, or as the case may be, the authorisation for the final withdrawal of the balance at credit is issued by the authority controlling the provident fund;
- (vii) no interest shall be allowed on deposits in an account opened in contravention of rule 3.

10. Pass Books—Presentation for confirmation of the balance.—Each depositor shall be supplied with a pass book in which shall be entered from time to time the amounts deposited or withdrawn by the depositor. The depositor shall present his pass book once a year as soon as possible after the 31st day of March to the Head Savings Bank or as the case may be, the Sub or the Branch Savings Bank for addition of interest and confirmation of the balance to the credit of the account and obtain a receipt in the prescribed form. Failure to do so or to get the pass book within three months of its handing over may entail the acceptance by the depositor of the balance in the post office ledger as final.

NOTE.—Whenever the pass book is handed over to the post office for a purpose other than that of making a deposit or a withdrawal, the depositor shall be granted a receipt in the prescribed form.

11. Duplicate Pass Book.—If a pass book is lost, stolen, destroyed or spoilt while in the custody of the depositor, he shall be given a duplicate pass book on his paying a fee of Re. 1 and on completion of inquiries by the Bank. The Head

Postmaster may grant exemption from payment of this fee if the pass book has been lost, spoilt or destroyed under circumstances beyond the control of the depositor.

12. Transfer of an account from one office to another.—A depositor may have his account transferred free of charge to any Post Office Savings Bank on making an application in the prescribed form subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

13. Conversion.—A single account may be converted into a joint account in the name of the original depositor and another person and a joint account may be converted into a single account in the name of one of the joint depositors in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

14. Closure.—Final withdrawal on the closure of an account at a Sub or Branch Savings Bank shall be allowed after obtaining the sanction of the Head Savings Bank.

15. Silent Accounts.—(1) Where no deposit into or withdrawal from an account has taken place for six complete years, then such an account shall be treated as a silent account.

(2) No transactions shall be allowed in respect of a silent account without the prior sanction of the Head Savings Bank.

16. Nomination.—(1) The depositor of an account standing in the name of a single depositor may apply to the Head Savings Bank of the office at which the account stands, in form 'A' together with the pass book nominating any person or persons who in the event of his death shall become entitled to payment of the amount due on the account:

Provided that no nomination shall be made in respect of an account opened on behalf of a minor or a person of unsound mind.

(2) A nomination made by a depositor under sub-rule (1) may be cancelled or varied by the depositor by submitting an application in form 'B' together with the pass book to the Head Savings Bank of the office at which the account stands.

(3) A fee of 50 paise shall be chargeable on every application for registration of a nomination or of any variation in nomination or cancellation thereof:

Provided that no fee shall be charged on an application for registration of the first nomination.

(4) The nomination or the cancellation or variation thereof shall be effective from the date it is registered in the Head Savings Bank which date shall be noted in the pass book.

(5) If a depositor of an account in respect of which a nomination is in force dies, the nominee or nominees shall make an application in the prescribed form accompanied by the proof of death of the depositor to the Head Savings Bank of the office at which the account stands.

(6) If any of the nominees is a minor, an application shall be made by the person appointed by the depositor under sub-section (3) of section 4 of the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873 or if no such person has been appointed, by his guardian.

(7) If any of the nominees is dead, the surviving nominee or nominees shall, in addition to proof of death of the depositor, also furnish proof of death of such nominee.

17. Supply of Savings Bank ledger copies.—A depositor may obtain copies of his savings bank account as appearing in the books of the Savings Bank on payment of a fee of rupee one for every thirty entries or part thereof.

18. Responsibility of the Savings Bank.—The Post Office Savings Bank shall not be responsible to a depositor for any fraudulent withdrawal by a person obtaining possession of the pass book or a cheque from the depositor.

19. Recovery of amount paid in excess.—The Head Savings Bank shall recover any interest or any other amount paid in excess in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

20. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, it shall be referred to the Central Government for a decision.

21. Repeals and Savings.—Any rules corresponding to these rules and in force immediately before the commencement of these rules and the Post Office Savings Banks (Nomination) Rules, 1960, are hereby repealed:

Provided that any action taken under the rules so repealed shall be deemed to have been taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.
